DEATH OF R. H. BAKER

Was an Heir of Island
Sovereigns.

ONCE MAUI'S GOVERNOR

His Body Will Lie in State and the Funeral Will be a Royal Function.

The death of Robert Hoapili Baker, which took place at his home in this city (Pawaa) at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, removes a man of distinguished ancestry and considerable public service. Colonel Baker was a direct descendant of King Liloa of Hawaii, who ruled the island of the volcano until the coming of Kamehameha the Great. This great grand- father, Napuapahoehoe, was high chief of Maui, upon which island the de- ceased was born and of which he be- came in the last years of the Kaka- kuanan dynasty, the Royal Governor. Robert Hoapili was the real name of this distinguished native, Baker being added in honor of the white man in whose family he was reared. His an- cestry was as notable as any of the genealogical chains in these islands, with the one exception of the Kame- hameha line. It is as follows:

1. Liloa (k) noho ia Akahikuleama (w) loa o Umi.
2. Umi-a-Liloa (k) noho ia Kapu- lai (w) loa o Keaneuui-a-Umi (k).
3. Keaneuui-a-Umi (k) noho ia Koi- halani (w) loa o Kanaloakuaana (k).
4. Kanaloakuaana (k) noho ia Kai- kilani (w) loa o Keakealani (k).
5. Keakealani (k) noho ia Kalei- he- ana (w) loa o Moana (k).
6. Moana (k) noho ia Pillani (w) loa o Hikiamoana (w).
7. Kauihi-a-Haki (k) noho ia Hika- moana (w) loa o Kahanaunani (k).
8. Kahanaunani (k) noho ia Kola- lipuehelani (k) me Huapuanani (k).
9. Kanaia (k) noho ia Kamahehe- III (w) loa o Napuapahoehoe (k).
10. Napuapahoehoe (k) noho ia Maunahia (w) loa o Laka (w), Malle (w) me Kamahehe III (w).
11. Malle (w) noho ia Ikekelelaku (k) loa o Robert Hoapili Baker.
12. Robert Baker mare ia Emma Merseberg loa o Robert Hoapili Baker, Jr., Mrs. C. W. Booth, Vito and Emma Baker.

As he grew to man's estate Mr. Baker became an intimate friend and retainer of the King. With a natu- rally bright mind which had been well trained at the Lahainaluna Seminary, he was a useful servant of the monarchy. Having great interest in military matters, he entered the ser- vice of the Household Troops and be- came in time the Colonel commanding the Royal forces. In that capacity and his subsequent one of Governor of Maui, he received the decorations which are shown in the photograph given herewith. The last special ser- vice of a military character which Col- onel Baker rendered was that of aide- de-camp to King Kalakaua on his tour of the Coast. He accompanied the Is- land sovereign up and down California, was with him when he made his fatal visit on a raw day to Cooper's olive ranch at Santa Barbara, attended at the Royal death bed in the Palace Hotel and brought the remains back to Honolulu. Under the Queen, Colonel Baker held his Governorship, retiring from it and coming here when the Provisional Government abolished gubernatorial positions. His name was never, thereafter, mixed in with the insurrectionary plots which were formed against the new Government. Rest and quiet were his objects; polit- ics and turbulence he left to others.

One of the interesting incidents in Colonel Baker's life was his connec- tion with the artistic conception of the Kamehameha statue. Clad in a royal feather cloak, wearing a helmet and carrying a spear, he posed for the pho- tograph from which the Italian master made his noble image of the na- tional hero.

Robert Hoapili Baker was, at the time of his death, 53 years of age. His death was brought about by heart dis- ease. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Emma Baker, and five descendants, Robert Hoapili Baker, Jr., Mrs. C. W. Booth, and Vito and Emma Baker, his son and daughters and a grandchild, Laola Booth. The estate of the dead Ha- wailian is at Lahaina, Maui, and con- sists of town lots and cane lands. It is part of his ancestral heritage.

The body of Colonel Baker will lie in state on Sunday afternoon between 2 and 4 o'clock at Milliani Hall, formerly known as Arion Hall. The funeral will be a Royal one and inter- ment will take place in Kawaiahao cemetery. Services will be conducted by the Reorganized church of Latter Day Saints.

NEW STEAM LAUNDRY.

Has Chosen Officers and Will Build At Once.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Sanitary Steam Laundry Com- pany, Limited, was held on Wednes- day at the office of J. A. Magoon. In opening the meeting, the latter ex- plained the object of the work to be done and the steps necessary to be taken for the incorporation of the company.

The election of temporary officers was held, resulting as follows: Presi- dent, Samuel Parker; vice president, J. A. Magoon; treasurer, F. Wunden- burg; secretary, J. Lightfoot; auditor, I. B. Burns. Directors—Geo. Beckley, J. A. McCandless, A. F. Cooke, Dr. C. B. Cooper, C. L. Crabbe and J. A. Ken- nedy.

The company will make application for a charter of incorporation at once, and the par value of the shares are placed at $50. Ten per cent of the capital will be collected by the treasurer, the necessary amount to take out in- corporation papers.

The company is out for business and will carry out the preliminary work of organization as fast as possible. The buildings and necessary appliances will be erected within a very short time, on land back of the Honolulu Stockyards Company. The plant it- self is to be erected in the interior of the old block, which, however, will be subdivided and streets laid through, so that the plant will then be on its own street. The new streets so opened up are to be improved and cottages built along them.

We wish to inform our patrons that we will not be deterred from pushing forward as rapidly as possible the con- struction of our electric railway and other improvements upon Pacific Heights by reason of a suit recently begun against former owners.

The development and sale of Pacific Heights lots will go on unrestrained, and parties seeking choice residence locations will find this a perfect prop- erty with an absolutely perfect title.
